What to expect?

It's widely acknowledged that allowing time for a wine to air is the secret to unlocking its true potential, but what if you can't wait.....

Join a couple of entertaining 4th generation vignerons and experience the latest in wine appreciation technology with a hands-on workshop showcasing the Vinturi Aerator.

Explore museum, current and future release barrel samples and discover how the aerator releases the wines aromas and flavours.

Numbers strictly limited
